Church of Our Founding Fathers

His Quaker grandfather told him, “You only go this way once. Try to leave this world a little better than you found it.”

Rector John M. Comer, DD, has taken the ultimate Oath of Allegiance to the USA — “I do hereby swear to protect, support and defend the Constitution of the United States of America and to disobey any Order that violates that Constitution.”

- He is eligible for membership in “The Sons of the American Revolution”. He has a direct ancestor who is listed as a combatant.
- Two of his namesake ancestors signed the Declaration of Independence and the U.S. Constitution.
- His ancestors were called “Christians” by the Kings of England before there were Bible-based Christians.
- He was an American combat pilot, USAF, and was cleared for Top Secret by the FBI. He buried a roommate and two friends defending the U.S. Constitution.
- He has spent most of the last thirty years surviving in the tech-driven world of Silicon Valley, California.
- He received his Doctor of Divinity on August 19, 2013.

“Life can and should be a hopeful experience, as long as the cards you have been dealt aren’t crippling. We can’t prevent bad experiences, but we can help you make sure that bad experiences don’t repeat themselves.

If you are not tangibly improving your “quality of life” on a daily basis by subscribing to the Promises of those to whom you look to for guidance, you are being betrayed. Those who want you to pay-up-front for a better seat in the “hereafter” also deny you the opportunity for a refund.

Instead of focusing on a Man-made “hereafter”, why not follow God’s suggestions and follow the teachings of Jesus Christ as the Founding Fathers did when they wrote the U.S. Constitution. By following our Founding Fathers’ advice, you can improve your quality of life today, tomorrow and in the Hereafter. ”

— Rector John M. Comer, DD

Everything he says that members of the Church of Our Founding Fathers can do to earn God's respect — he has done. And, a few things he shouldn't have.
