America's Promise to its citizens, ameliorated for the 21st Century

The U.S. government and subordinate governments will maintain and sustain a level playing field, while providing an equitable distribution of services for all citizens, as evidenced by — “Matters of Fact.”

- 1) Easy access to an impartial legal system for settling disputes between citizens and their government, special interests, or other citizens.

Example – Homeowners: After 2007, every bank and regulated lending institution in the USA had breached their contracts with their borrowers and effectively forfeited their Right to foreclose. Unfortunately, homeowners didn't know what they didn't know. Their ownership position could have been protected by the 7th Amendment of the U.S. Constitution. Homeowner protection is still available.

Other Examples Include: Students loans, credit reports, other financial contracts, and the Right to competent schooling.

- 2) Equal access to affordable preparation for successful participation in the 21st Century American workforce.
- 3) Fair Value Taxing — Taxes supported by Return On Investment (ROI), Cost Benefit Analysis (CBA), Opportunity Cost (CO) considerations, and the U.S. Constitution.
- 4) Consistency of rules and regulations that affect the lives of U.S. citizens across the USA.
- 5) Preservation of merit-based vertical mobility — socially and economically.

- 6) The delineation, competent management and effective maintenance of America's Natural Resources, National Resources, Common Environs and Environments.
- 7) Equal access to America's Natural Resources, National Resources, Common Lands and Seas.
- 8) The Federal Government pursuing National interests that are in the “best” interests of U.S. citizens.
- 9) The Federal Government preserving America's Promise and Promises as described by our Founding Fathers.
- 10) Easy access to the American Dream: Unalienable Rights, including “Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness”, are God-given rights that neither governments nor religious institutions may infringe, impinge or deny to “We the People” — American's Citizens. (a.k.a., The U.S. Rule of Law)
