
Founding Partners

Leaving visible “Footprints in the Sands of Time” by restoring the Promise of America.

Benjamin Franklin said —

“If you would not be forgotten as soon as you are dead, either write something worth reading or do things worth writing about.”

To which can be added — or help to build something uniquely useful that will transcend the Sands of Time, and has your name on it.

Defended: 1945

Restoring: 2014 –

We are never too old to be uniquely useful —

John M. Comer

1930–

Jill Claire Applegate

1942–

Beverly Van Name

1926–